Students of the Week (May 22 – 26):

Hasleth Navas Funez - Hasleth is a very respectful student who is great at communicating with her teachers and peers. She has worked ahead and has completed everything for her fashion design course. She has put a lot of effort into her course work and her grade reflects that! She always makes good choices during the school day and continues to impress me. She is a great role model for other students to follow. Keep up the good work Hasleth!

JP Schrunk - JP consistently shows respect for both his peers and his teachers. It is clear that he takes pride in all of the work he completes. He is extremely responsible and well organized. He always comes to class with a positive attitude and is very self-motivated. Keep up the great work JP!
