Dear Parents/Guardians:

Per state statutes, each public school in the state is required to provide annual notices that include school accountability report and educational options. Information is provided below as well as links to the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction website that can provide additional information.

School & School District Accountability & Performance Reports

The School Accountability Report and Wisconsin School District Performance Report are published by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI). Parents/Guardians can find both reports online through the District's website at <https://www.hartfordjt1.k12.wi.us/district-office/school-performance-assessments> or request a copy from the District.
