Wisconsin Statute 118.35

Board Policies

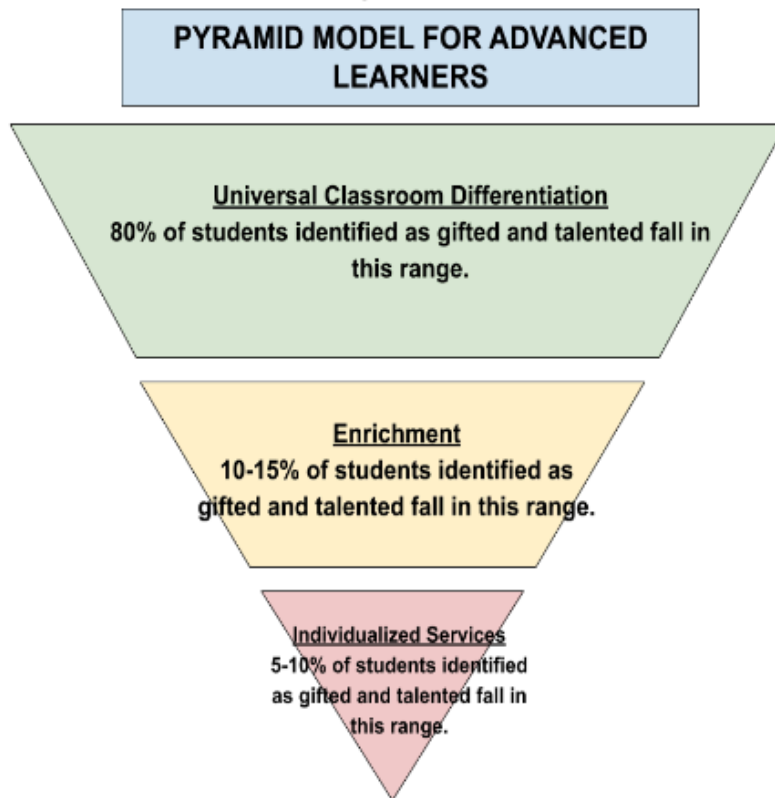

Board of Education Policy 2464 - PROGRAMS FOR GIFTED AND TALENTED STUDENTS

In accordance with the philosophy of the Board of Education to develop the special abilities of each student, the Board requires that appropriate instructional programs be conducted to meet the needs of gifted and talented students.

Gifted and talented students are those who are identified as evidenced, through valid assessment, of high performance capability in intellectual, creative, artistic, leadership, and/or other academic areas and who need services or activities not ordinarily provided in the regular District program in order to develop such capabilities.

Board of Education Administrative Guideline 5410A - ACCELERATION

Levels of Service Model Program Overview

Tier 1: Universal Classroom Differentiation

Approximately 80% of identified advanced learners align with this tier. Tier 1 strategies are similar to differentiation used at the universal responsive instructional level. Differentiation strategies may include (but are not limited to) , learning centers, team teaching, learning menus, and extension projects. In many cases, students at this tier are not aware of the different levels of activities that are provided to meet their unique academic needs.

Tier 2: Enrichment

Approximately 10-15% of identified advanced learners align with this tier. Tier 2 strategies move beyond the universal responsive instruction and tier 1 differentiation through more targeted and intensive enrichment opportunities. These may include (but are not limited to) flexible grouping of students, curriculum compacting, small group work, and advanced placement coursework. The enrichment opportunities available at tier 2 are dependent on the student grade level (elementary or secondary) and identified student needs.

Tier 3: Individualized Services

Approximately 5-10% of identified advanced learners align with this tier. Tier 3 is intended for students who demonstrate the greatest need and who have not been sufficiently challenged with universal responsive instruction, tier 1 differentiation, or tier 2 enrichment. Students in tier 3 require highly specialized services such as (but not limited to) Differentiated Education Plans (DEP), subject acceleration, grade advancement, and independent research.

Definitions of Giftedness

There are five areas of Giftedness as noted in Wisconsin Statute 118.35:

1. Intellectual: those children/students who exhibit early and rapid development of language ability, strong powers of reasoning and advanced ability in critical thinking and problem solving. Typically these students are several years beyond their peers in their cognitive ability.
2. Academic: those children/students who are making outstanding progress in a particular content area in school including math, science, social studies, reading or language arts.
3. Creativity: those students who develop original ideas and products. They express their creativity in oral, written, and/or non-verbal expression. They are flexible and original in their thinking, possess strong visualization skills, and frequently are independent and resist conformity.
4. Artistic: those students with demonstrated exceptional ability or potential in the field of drama, music, dance and/or visual arts.
5. Leadership: those students who demonstrate an ability to influence their peers and have the ability to convince people to act or not act in specific ways. Leaders demonstrate the ability to facilitate group problem solving, group goal achievement, and ability to delegate responsibility.

Identification

Identification of advanced learners may occur at any time preK-8th grade. Students are identified using assessment and performance data. At the primary level, the majority of the educational needs of the advanced learners are met in the regular classroom through differentiation. As students continue through the grade-levels students may receive more opportunities for specialized programming.

The identification of advanced learners moves through a specific set of procedures. The type of advanced learner services provided will be dependent upon the area or areas of giftedness of each student.
